2018 TEACHING ASIA

Faculty Development
Workshop

Hosted by

Background

For the past five years, the USG Asia Council has organized faculty development workshops with a regional focus covering China, India, Southeast Asia, South Korea and Japan. The Council will continue with a new series of workshops with an interdisciplinary, trans-regional focus addressing timely topics like religion, gender issues, science and technology, etc. Join us for the first one focusing on "Islam in Asia."

Topics

- The Geographic & Ethnic Landscape of Islam in Asia
- Origins of Islam: What Does the Koran Say
- Islam in Island Southeast Asia: Patters of Conversions, Beliefs and Controversies
- Buddhist Thailand's Muslim Minority – Issues of Religion and National Integrity
- Uyghur History & Religiosity vs. Chinese State Policy
- Islam in South Asia: Critical Regional Issues
- Roundtable Discussion: The Rohingya of Myanmar/Burma: A Contemporary Religious & Ethnic Tragedy
